BISBEE NEWS.

Daily Happenings at the Great Copper Camp.

Budget of Interesting Items from our Regular Correspondent.

Bisbee, Dec. 19, 1896.
 COFFEEING.

J. S. William Jr. and family left for Tombstone this morning for a short visit. Sid has quite a little business in Tombstone just now and is taking advantage of an opportunity for a pleasure trip at the same time.

G. S. Prince who has been employed as a machinist by the company for some 8 or ten months past left for his old home in the state of Washington this morning. Mr. Prince has made quite a number of friends during his stay and they all without exception are sorry to see him leave.

Prof. J. W. Stewart, the efficient principal of our school left this morning for his home near Tempe where he will spend the holidays. Mr. Stewart deserves quite a little credit for the shape into which he has succeeded in bringing the Bisbee school. Our school always has contained a goodly number of pupils who were extremely hard to manage, and this term is no exception to the rule, and we think the present high standard of the school certainly speaks well for his efforts.

W. L. Douglas conductor on the A.
 & S. E. left this morning for Nogales as he said for the purpose of spending the holidays with his family. We have since learned however that this is only another of those mysterious trips and that the express purpose of his journey is well stated in a certain marriage license which is to be used on the eve before Christmas. We wish the gentleman luck and prosperity—Boys, hunt up your old cans. We will give due notice of his return.

Mr. Adams that genial grocery clerk whose beautiful side-burners have been the pride of his department of the store, for several months past, seemed unusually lively and cheerful today.
 His fellow clerks for some time could not make out what was the matter with him, but finally learned that his hilarious state of mind was due to the fact that his family were on their way here from Southern California and would arrive on this evening's train.
 If the train had been half an hour late as is sometimes the case, we believe Mr. Adams would have succumbed to the excitement but as it was, everything passed off very well and now the Colonel is as happy as a little San Diego clam.

In Thursday's issue we made a slight apology for not being able to induce any of the young ladies to write descriptions of the dresses worn at the two weddings last Wednesday, for us.
 We promise therein to make a copy of same from the columns of the Bisbee Orb (the receipt of all such favors) we hereby produce the same.

SCOTT-LIGGETT.
 The bride was dressed in a neat fitting gown of white silk, while her sister, Miss Millie, who acted as bridesmaid was attired in a becoming gown of lavender silk. The groom wore a neat full dress suit.

SPINDLE-HUMPHRY.
 The bride was dressed in a very becoming gown of white silk, with long train and veil, while her sister who acted as bridesmaid and was dressed in blue silk. The groom was attired in a very neat full dress suit.

In making your selection of Christmas and holiday presents there is nothing more appropriate than a well selected piece of jewelry. Our local jeweler, Mr. Schmieding, has lately laid in quite an assortment of articles in this line, all of the latest and most approved patterns. His stock of gold-quartz jewelry is especially attractive, and a call on him may save you much trouble and care in your Christmas selections. His present assortment of watches and diamonds can't be beat.
